The sad death of Richard Asser on 29th April 2017, aged 86 years.

This report is a synopsis of the tribute that the Reverend Ronald Hawkes delivered at Richard Asser's cremation on the 24th of May 2017.

Thanksgiving Service was at St Nicholas 26th of May at 2pm.

I have found in Richard a man who was warm and generous.

He loved laughter and joy and wanted church services to be upbeat, as well as appreciating quieter and more reflective moments.

He was very encouraging, creating an excellent poster for the St Nicholas Service and proposing that we held the Scarecrow Festival.

He was particularly concerned that the Remembrance Sunday service was conducted in a dignified and seemly manner.

He didn't like triumphalism or jingoism, but was most decidedly patriotic, and took great pains in arranging every detail so that it all worked perfectly.

He was a clear thinker and valued member of the PCC, who didn't always speak at length but always spoke at depth.

He was keen that the church building was developed and improved and drew a design for our hoped-for kitchen area.

Just 18 months ago he and Jane hosted a Lent Bible Study group and his insights were razor sharp and much appreciated by all those present.

He was a surprising man. Who would have believed that this imposing figure also created beautiful art works in ceramic, and greatly enjoyed literature and the visual arts?

He was surprising too, in his very modern attitudes towards sexuality and love.

He was personally generous to me, and many people locally. Generous with time and energy, ensuring that new residents were welcomed and included; making financial gifts to various people; opening his garden for our use as a church car park; donating me the large slice of tree for my house name-plate, and always handing over a liberal supply of "suitable beverages" at Christmas.

Richard was a man of faith. Our final conversations included his unexpected request for Holy Communion and, when I managed to find the bread on the hospital ward, refusing to be fobbed off with cold tea, calling out "where's the wine?" as he was wheeled down the corridor.

That he was anointed, shriven, blessed, and prayed with and for was important for him. He was a regular and prominent member of the Sunday congregation; 3rd pew back on the right hand side, and insistent that he should go to the altar rail as long as he possibly could, preferably under his own steam.

He was a man of his time, an English gentleman, and so maybe not good with emotions. He was not a plaster saint, but he tried to be a good man, and he has done much that brought life, light, love and laughter to his family and community.

Sibford School Open Day 2017

175-years of outstanding Quaker education will be celebrated later this month when Sibford School hosts its annual Open Day. The event, which takes place on Saturday 17 June, is open to current parents, friends, old scholars and anyone interested in the possibility of a place at Sibford in the future.

In the Senior School, there will be a Meeting for Worship at 9am, followed by an Opening Celebration at 9.30am, where pupils will be reflecting on the past 175 years. In the Junior School, classroom displays will be open for visitors from 9.30am.

There will be a host of events and CODEWORDS are like crossword puzzles - but have no clues! Instead, every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number, the same number representing the same letter throughout the puzzle. All you have to do is decide which letter is represented by which number! To start you off, we reveal the codes for two or three letters. When you've filled in these letters throughout the puzzle, you'll have enough clues to start guessing words and discovering other letters.

The Sibfords Society

This is our local history society.

Meetings are held nine times a year and include external visits during the summer, and talks of historical interest, which are held on the third Thursday of the month in the Village Hall.

We concentrate mainly on the local area but are occasionally happy to invite speakers from further afield.

We have an archive room where we preserve evidence for future generations.

Two outings and three more talks are planned before the end of the year:

- 1) June 15: Day Trip to Sudeley Castle.
- 2) July 20: Afternoon visit to Woodstock for guided tour of SOFO 'Soldiers of Oxfordshire Museum', followed by pub supper.
- 3) September 21 : Liz Woolley on 'Oxfordshire and the Spanish Civil War'.
- 4) October 19 : Dr Gillian White on 'The Great Fire of Warwick'.
- 5) November 16: Dr Richard Buckley: 'Life after Richard III; Archaeology at Leicester 2012 – 2017'.

Visitors are very welcome at a cost of £2.50 per meeting. which includes refreshments . The day trips require entrance payments. Richard Buckley's talk will cost £8 p.p. unless you join the Society at a cost of £12.

Do join us – doors open at 7.45 p.m. and talks begin at 8 p.m. For further information, please contact Diana Hughes (secretary) at : 01295 780506 .

There are seven boarding houses at Swalcliffe Park. Ofsted reported that; "Each boarding house has a warm and nurturing atmosphere and environment within which young people relax together and enjoy time with each other."

Within this nurturing atmosphere, the School offers its students an extensive range of hobbies and activities that include after-school clubs, music and drama, fishing, camping, football and rugby team membership, annual field trips and more. Recently some of the students qualified for the semi-finals of the Football Association People's Cup, and another student, recognised for his cycling talent by a national coach, is currently receiving expert coaching to develop his technique and fitness.

Principal, Kiran Hingorani commented, "We are delighted to have received an 'Outstanding' rating from Ofsted for Care. To receive this rating consecutively over the last 3 years takes hard work and a firm commitment to delivering the very best for our students... something we continuously strive to deliver."

To find out more about Swalcliffe Park School and to read the full report, visit the school website www.swalcliffepark.co.uk.

PRESS RELEASE

Swalcliffe Park School

Communication Independence
Self Management Achievement

A specialist residential and day school for boys with Autism.

Swalcliffe Park School rated 'Outstanding' for Care in latest Ofsted Inspection for 3rd consecutive year.

Ofsted recently rated Swalcliffe Park School, a specialist residential and day school for boys with autism, 'Outstanding' for Care for the third consecutive year. This is the 5th 'Outstanding' rating the school has received from Ofsted in the last six years including for Education and Care.

At Swalcliffe Park School, we believe that the best way to prepare our students for their futures is to help them develop attitudes, skills and knowledge in four key areas: Communication, Independence, Self-Management and Achievement. These four areas drive the work we do with our students and is, we believe, the reason the students thrive and flourish in our care.

In their recent inspection, Ofsted reported that "young people's emotional and psychological well-being improves significantly... young people develop interests, skills and become proficient in areas that would not have been considered possible before their admission to the school. They enjoy their lives far more than they have previously."

This is borne out in the comments from parents, one parent commented; "The staff team support my son; they believe in him and provide him with the conditions to try anything." Another parent said of her son, "I cannot believe that he's the same chap."

Volunteer groups

The Parish Council is now undertaking various maintenance projects, as a direct result of both local devolvment and our own initiatives.

This work is sometimes done by approved contractors, in the case of grass verge cutting, but also occasionally undertaken by members of the PC. The digging out of Stant Hill Spring recently, to uncover the flooding problem is an example.

If there are any residents who feel they could afford to lend a few hours of their time, to assist with some of the smaller projects we are hoping to achieve, then the PC would be delighted to hear from them.
